THE CODE SWITCHER®

GEORGE PAASEWE

Educator, Author, Speaker.

If you are planning your next conference, training, meeting, or event on diversity, equity, or inclusion, you want your audience to be inspired, engaged, and ready to take action with the tangible value from their ultimate experience.

George Paasewe will deliver that experience to your college, university, and organization on the concept of code-switching. In this meaningful hands-on experience, audience members will be able to:

- To examine and evaluate the concept of code-switching
- To identify why people code-switch
- To explain how code-switching is learned
- To compare the advantages and disadvantages of code-switching
- To identify the adverse effects of code-switching
- To identify the root cause of why people of color experience the burden of code-switching
- To develop strategies of how to advocate for social change, inclusion, and acceptance of individualism
- To develop one's self-concept of code-switching to maintain their true identity when code-switching
